Mel Batchelor

Juneau, Alaska | (301) 318-2707 | melbatchelor21@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Has experience with community engagement, public speaking, social media management, event planning and group facilitation
- Spoke on a panel at the 10th National Collegiate Recovery Conference.
- Authored Remember Me (2014), a novel-in-verse written at age fourteen and published at age sixteen

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF ARTS | 2019 | UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MAINE

- Has a BA in Women and Gender Studies and a minor in English

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

AMERICORPS MEMBER | JUNEAU SUICIDE PREVENTION COALITION (JSPC) | AUGUST 2020 – PRESENT

- Will be working with the JSPC to support emotional wellbeing amongst high schoolers and educate the larger Juneau community about suicide prevention and mental health.

CRISIS HOTLINE SPECIALIST | COMMUNITY CRISIS SERVICES, INC. | JAN. 2020 – APRIL 2020

- Provided emotional support and/or resources to callers from a variety of different hotlines, including the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline, Trevor Lifeline, 211 Maryland, Epilepsy Hotline, and multiple local warmlines.
- Took quality documentation for each individual call and assessed for suicide risk.

INTERN | RECOVERY ORIENTED CAMPUS CENTER (ROCC) | JAN. 2019 – APRIL 2019

- Researched connections between mental health recovery and Feminist Theory.
- Organized the "Recovery Stories" panel and facilitated a weekly discussion-based group.
- Continued working with the ROCC on a volunteer basis as a peer by co-facilitating a support group for LGBTQ+ students in recovery from mental health conditions and/or substance use disorders

INTERN | STRONG 365 | JUNE 2018 – SEPTEMBER 2018

- Distributed content for social media platforms.
- Created online social media campaigns to promote education and acceptance around psychosis.
- Provided written communication for outreach purposes reaching 250+ people.

ADVOCACY WORK

CREATOR | A-CUTE PSYCHOTIC | MARCH 2020 – PRESENT

- Has an Instagram page (@acutepsychotic) with around 2,240 followers that provides educational content about psychosis and celebrates disability justice.

YOUTH LEADERSHIP BOARD MEMBER | STRONG 365 | MARCH 2018 – PRESENT

- Has worked on a variety of projects and is currently creating "activist profiles" for Strong 365's social media pages to highlight mental health activists with psychotic disorders.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBER | SPECTRUM | JAN. 2016 – DECEMBER 2016

- Created and facilitated events for Spectrum (a LGBTQ+ group at Hamline University) that centered the LGBTQ+ community.